“ I worked with Ken while he was helping us to bring up the Israeli fundery (Fab) of National Semi Conductor. We had a wonderful opportunities to be with him and his lovely wife Pat in Israel and mainly in Jerusalem, and some years after to meet them in Orlando where Ken demonstrated his magnificent talent of playing guitar and sing the Yodel.

They will be remembered in my hart!

“ He opened his heart and home to unwanted children and became our surrogate father. What an amazing man he was when he entered our lives. When our own children arrived, he was their grandfather. He held newborns as they were baptized and given to God. Always in constant prayer for his family and without those deeds, many of us would not have turned to our savior. You completed the mission that God had for you, dad.

*May you complete your journey into ever lasting and eternal life.
Your legacy on this earth will live on.*
