“ Kevin and I worked together at DWP as grounds men. We shared lots of laughs and good times. Every now and then I reminisce of the fun we had as “grunts” and the havoc we’d wreak. I remember when he was getting ready to marry his new bride Robin and how much he loved her which leaves me to believe he was a great father to his children.

DWP posts a monthly obituary and I was shocked to see his name since we are the same age. He was way too young to go. Blessings to his entire family. He will be in my prayers.

“ I'm so sad to hear of Kevin passing. Irving is one of my longest friends, more like a brother to me. I am glad that in the past year I have reconnected with him and had many wonderful conversations. May God bless his soul, rest easy now Kevin. Love you.
