

Kimberly Orlinski

February 25, 2024

Kimberly Ann Orlinski Turner

“Kimmie”, 51, quietly passed away February 25, 2024 at home in Summerdale, Alabama. Kimmie struggled with several health issues over the past few years. She has worked as an electrician most of her life. Her career allowed her to travel over much of the country and she made many friends along the way. Kimmie will be remembered as a sweet and very caring person. She loved her family and friends deeply, especially her two children, Alexandria Delores Richmond and William Alan Richmond. Kimmie enjoyed writing music, playing her guitar and singing.

Kimmie was preceded in death by her father, Talmadge Turner, brother Eddie Orlinski and nieces, Ashtian and Kristen Cash. She is survived by her children Alexandria Richmond of Kentwood , Louisiana and Will Richmond of Centreville, Mississippi, mother, Delores Turner of Summerdale, Alabama, siblings; Janice Turner Davis of Baytown, Texas, Steve Orlinski Turner of Summerdale, Alabama, Kellie Renee Turner Seale of Tuscaloosa, Alabama and Scott Orlinski Turner of Gulf Shores, Alabama.

The family would like to thank all for the outpouring of sympathy, prayers and support during this difficult time.

“ My sympathy for the family and friends Kimmie left behind. She had the best when she had your love and presence in her life.
And you were blessed by having her in your lives.
