“ Lars was a dear friend, who can only be described as loving , kind, generous , and very intelligent. He was an excellent art dealer also and was always encouraging to those of us who shared his passion for art. He introduced me to the game of trivia which will always be an exciting part of life for me now. My heart is grieving for the humorous, warm person who consistently uplifted my spirits. I will miss him always. Betsey Wooten

“ I miss you Lars. I enjoyed our friendship and having you in my household. We watched movies together, ate popcorn, played chess -- you even beat me the last time we played !!! Lars, i want a rematch! No excuses now. You always called me 'Big Jim' after a character in a TV show we watched together. Got any more questions about you Mac computer -- I make house calls even where you are now. Thanks for getting me into coaching soccer -- our teams never played each other. "Get a Goal... Get a Goal..." Thanks for telling me once that I was '...in denial' -- that really helped me. I know I will see you again because I am told that they still play 'Trivial Pursuit' where you are. Nothing changes except you a free from any physical limitations. God Bless, Love you my friend. Bill Case

“ Of all my cousins, we always bragged about how smart he was. I grew up with this very special person and he was so comical too. You gave us all nicknames and mine was the best...Tarkus Arkus! Everytime we would see each other you would greet me with that and then we would laugh. You will be missed, Loved and never forgotten. Tara Revette Gardner.
