“ I just found out about Lawrence's passing. He is a part of my formative years, as he dated my sister Mary when I was a young teen. I was a boy from So Cal who came out to visit them in Mobile, and had a wonderful time (Lawrence took us fishing, sailing, flying in a crop duster (thought that was the end of my young life that day!), looking for gators, etc. I always meant to reach out to Lawrence over the years, but never pulled the trigger. I am very sad I never did. He was a good man, full of adventure and humor. He will be missed. My prayers and condolences to the family.

“ You were one of my best friends. I love you and will miss you so very much. We helped each other out all the time and no matter what I asked he would be right there with smiles and a laugh. The world is alot darker now without you. Logan Beavers and Paige Dukes.

“ On February 13th I was walking on our street and smoking. Lawrence made a bee line for me. I've been a smoker for about 50 years . Lawrence looked me straight in the eyes and said "Brother please put those down. I want you to be here for your wife". I have not smoked since that day. I miss cutting up with him. The left hand thread stories were always hilarious. Miss you, Brother.
