“ *Wow, so many wonderful memories of a neighbor who as a young man would come over to our house; enjoyed evenings of conversation, laughter, watching tv shows. Our son Allen raised an orphan calf then didn't have heart to sell the pet cow until Larry ask to for his grandson. Larry was man of many talents but a farmer at heart, took great pride in his family. Will miss his soft voice and gentle nature. May your memories be roses in December, Sandra, Devon and Shannon. “ Devin, Fred and I are so sad to hear about your dad, and we have been praying for you and your family. I lost my dad in a sudden way just as you did yours, and it is such a difficult and painful road. My heart truly goes out to you. I pray the Holy Spirit will bring you his peace.
Love, Barbara
