“ You changed my world twice, once when you entered it and again when you left it. I'll miss you till I see you again.

“ I may have known a different man than some of you. He was an older more settled version after he and Lisa were married. He was quick to smile and offer a joke, or lend a hand if you needed it with whatever you were doing, always respectful. He was most at peace out riding his bike or working on some part of it to get it just right or spending time at home with his family. I know without any doubt that he loved his family more than anything. We are less without you, man.

With Deepest Sadness,
Jeannie
