“ I meant to say: Her funeral was held on my dad's birthday - March 12, 1901.

Cousin Dennis Doherty of Rochester, MN also died the day she died. His funeral was a week day. So I saw a few of my other cousins and Colleen Mulvihill, wife of John, who died of cancer in Dec. maybe 2013. Margaret (Peg) was at a daughters in WI - some kind of emergency, at that time. Dennis had been in the hospital about a week and was taken off life support because he was not improving. He had a quick cancer - he began seeing a Dr. in Dec. for pain, I think.

I had visited with him and he transported the food, Helen & Don, and me for a family reunion at Assisi Heights, where I live in NW Rochester. They, H & D, had a small car and he had a van. He seemed in good health then. Sister Lorraine D.

“ My prayers, again for your mother. I'm glad you all got there for the burial of her ashes (except Laurie). Laurie, I hope you are feeling much better by now.

I so enjoyed any time I saw your dad and mother. I haven't seen her since he died. I remember the trip with them in MO. I forget where I flew in, but they picked me up and took me to a place in the wide open space surrounded by huge hills, where I stayed for a sabbatical. I think that was in the early 1990's.
