“ The kindest, most giving, down to earth, honest, authentic loving man I have ever been privileged to know. He was an amazing man and an exceptional father to all of his children and even to those of us that had no daddies in our lives. I was blessed to be one of them. I have precious memories of the entire Allman family from when I was 14 and up. As my own family was dysfunctional, I found a family and home under this man's roof. How lucky I was! Many, many years passed since I last saw him but the love I felt for him never diminished. Really, for his entire family. I will never, ever forget him. May he truly rest in peace.
