

Lewis Randolph Collins

November 26, 1928 - July 15, 2019

Lewis Randolph Collins (Randy), long time resident of Waynesboro, Virginia, peacefully passed away on July 15, 2019 in Fairhope, Alabama at the age of 90. Randy was a loved husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. Born on November 26, 1928, to Lena Virginia Collins and William Romey Collins , Randy was raised on a small farm at the foot of Afton Mountain, in Albemarle County. As as a young boy, he moved to Waynesboro with his family, where his father owned The Last Chance Service Station.

Married March 26, 1948, to Hettie Jacqueline Campbell (Collins) of Nellysford, Virginia. Randy was in plant supervision and sales for several textile companies in the Waynesboro area, including Wayne-Tex and Sunburst Yarns/Amoco Oil Company, traveling internationally and domestically. He was an Army Reservist during WWII and a former member of the Lions Club and Elks B.P.O.E. Randy enjoyed outdoor activities of camping, fishing, hunting, gardening and spending time with his children and grandchildren. He is preceded in death by father William Romey Collins, his mother Lena Virginia Marrs Collins and siblings Bertha Sprouse, Dorothy Dowell and Frederick Collins.

Randy leaves behind to keep his memories alive, daughters Glenda Collins Marks of Foley, Alabama and husband Randall Svitak and Tina Collins Williford and husband Mark Williford of Raleigh, North Carolina; Grandchildren

Elliott Marks and wife Pamela of Daphne, AL, Meredith Williford of Raleigh, NC, Davis Williford of Savannah, GA, and John Williford and wife Catherine of Greenville, NC. Also, left are two great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and their children residing in Virginia, Alabama, Tennessee, California.

A Memorial gathering will be held at Stella, Bella & Lucy's Restaurant, 327 West Main Street in Waynesboro on Friday, July 19th, at 6 o'clock p.m. until 8 o'clock p.m. Friends and family are invited to visit.