

Linda Faye Nelson Langer

September 14, 1955 - August 17, 2020

Linda Faye Nelson Langer left this earth and gained her celestial wings on Monday, August 17, 2020. She was the firstborn of twin girls on Sept. 14, 1955 at Providence Hospital in Mobile and a lifelong resident of Bon Secour. Linda fought a fierce battle against Covid-19, on a ventilator, and WON , unfortunately, after three weeks in the hospital, her body succumbed due to underlying health issues and complications arising from pneumonia and infection.

Linda was a founding member of Fishermen Baptist Church and a Sunday School teacher. She earned a degree in Cosmetology. She was an amazing wife to her husband of 43 years, a devoted daughter and sister, a supportive and loving mother, a trusting and loyal friend to so many, and the proudest title she held was an adoring MawMaw.

Linda was preceded in death by her first born son, Captain Peter John Nelson.

She is survived by her spouse, William Stanley (Billy) Langer, Sr., Her parents, Fred (Peter) and Yvonne Nelson, her siblings, twin, Glenda Black, Fred (Buster), Frankie, and Johnny Nelson. She is also survived fabulous children, Rhonda Williamson, Tiffany Langer, and William Stanley (Billy) Langer, Jr. and her favorites, above all , her grandchildren, Darren, Branden, Aden, Noah, Joseph, Dane, Mila, and Sage.

She leaves behind a legacy of love in the hearts of all whom knew her.

Services will be held at the chapel of Fishermen Baptist Church on Thursday, August 20, 2020 at 11:00 A.M.

Masks are welcomed but NOT required.

“ My love with condolences go out to all her family as they all are a wonderful group of people who has been loyal to all their friends and customers through out the years. They all have loved their forth of July holiday big gathering to see all their friends and enjoying a meal together with God sitting at the head of the table, May God be with them all in their time of sorrow,. Linda, RIP>
