“ Dear friend Linda, We miss you and all the good times we shared together. Your absence in our lives have left such a large hole in our hearts ! You will long be remembered with love for all we have shared over the years. When I see beautiful things, I will always think of you. See you in the arms of Jesus in your heavenly home, breathing freely, running through the grassy fields of flowers, a child of God healthy and strong again.

“ I met Linda while she was walking in the neighborhood and I was thinking of buying a home where she lived. She was so kind and gracious and we instantly clicked. She invited back to her house and our friendship grew from there. We stayed in touch for about the last 2 years. She had a deep love for Jesus and we had several long talks about our faith in God and her illness as well as mine. She had a faith that was very deep and never wavered. The love of God truly shined through Linda. I will miss her very much.

I met Linda by happenstance visiting her art gallery in Orange Beach. Linda was so hospitable her place became my happy place... the conversation, the art, the sincerity and beauty... I always left there uplifted. My daughter often visited with me and she, too, loved seeing Linda and her art. I rejoice she is reunited with her dear Mother in Jesus' presence.

We are approaching the second anniversary of Linda's passing into her new life. I met Linda when I drove by her art gallery on my way to the beach house I purchased. The oil paintings hanging outside immediately caught my attention and the u-turn that followed was an example of destiny. After purchasing numerous paintings, Linda became my best friend. How fortunate I am to have had Linda enter my life and heart. Such a sweet free spirit who cared for humanity, animals, and the environment. We would have marathon telephone conversations (since I live in Montgomery), some serious while others goofy, that would cheer both of us. She loved her mother, brothers, nephew, and nieces.

Now, as I walk through my house and enjoy 65 of Linda's oil paintings hanging on my walls, I feel her gentle spirit uplifting me daily and hope her new life is fabulous. I truly miss her. She will always be in my heart. Linda Bednarski, Montgomery, AL.
