

Lisa Meabon

April 17, 2025

Lisa Ann Meabon (née Wilson), age 67, passed away on April 17, 2025, in Elberta, Alabama. Born on January 25, 1958, in Birmingham, Alabama, Lisa lived a life marked by resilience, compassion, and an unwavering zest for adventure.

Throughout her life, Lisa embraced every opportunity to explore the world and connect with others. Her career took her on a journey to Aman, Jordan and Qatar to teach at an American School—experiences that not only enriched her professional journey but also fueled her love of travel and cultural discovery, travels took Lisa to Egypt and visited the Great Pyramids and the ancient city of Petra. Lisa holds a Pharmacy Tech degree from Casper College and a degree in Human Resources from Columbia Southern University and has held her realtors license for the past 20 years. Later in life, Lisa found joy and fulfillment working at Columbia Southern University and her favorite, The Home Depot in Foley, Alabama. These roles reflected their enduring work ethic and deep appreciation for community.

Lisa was known for her tireless dedication—often working two jobs—and for the warmth she brought into every space she entered. Whether surrounded by family, friends or beloved pets, Lisa's presence was one of kindness, generosity, and heartfelt compassion. She was happiest riding on the back of a motorcycle with the wind in her hair, out on her boat, connecting with friends around the country and crafting unique and unusual creations that reflected her vibrant spirit.

Lisa's final years were marked by courage and intentionality. After being diagnosed with cancer, she chose to celebrate life on their own terms—hosting two “Celebrations of Life” while still living: one among friends in San Antonio, Texas, and another with family in Phoenix, Arizona. These gatherings were a testament to the love she gave and received throughout her life.

Lisa is survived by her husband Dennis Meabon and sister Pat Tarwater. She was preceded in death by her father Marvin E. Wilson; mother Betty Jean Brown; brothers Marty Wilson and brother Lionel Wilson and son Zachary Hortsman.

In accordance with Lisa's wishes, no formal ceremony will be held. Instead of flowers, donations may be made in Lisa's memory to Walker Hometown Animal Care at 22940 US Highway 98E, Foley, Alabama—a reflection of Lisa's lifelong love for animals.

May Lisa Ann Meabon's memory bring comfort to those who knew her and continue to inspire lives filled with courage, kindness, and joy.
