“ It seems as though it was only a short while ago that Logan and I met. In the time we spent together, I honestly do not remember any time that I saw him that he was not smiling. It was as if he gave you no choice. You would love him now or you would love him later, but either way, you would come to love him. Many whom I have taught will recall my definitioin for love. If not, then here it is: "Love is a commitment with a beginning and no end." I truly believe this since it is what the Savior has done and is still doing for us. He chose to love us before we were ever born, He loves us today, and He will love us all the way through eternity. You see, He made us the object of His love and expects each of us to do the same. Well guess what my little brother. I made that comittment toward you, and will continue to do so even as we bask in eternity! Continue to smile large as you bask in His never-ending love, Wayne Hudson
