

Lonnie Dye

October 4, 2024

Lonnie Dye, age 75, passed away on Friday, October 4, 2024, in Foley Alabama. He was born on April 29, 1949 in Morganfield, Kentucky to Leroy and Virgie (Ringstaff) Dye.

Lonnie was preceded in death by his parents and his siblings, Virginia Dye, Lee Roy Dye, Marshall Dye, Donald Dye, and Bobbie Joe Dye. He is survived by his wife, Linda Dye, brother, Jimmie Dye, daughter, Angela Ellis, his two grandchildren Matthew (Maria) and Elizabeth Ellis and two great grandchildren, Michael and Mia Ellis.

Lonnie had a long career at Eaton Corporation in Henderson, KY for thirty-one years. He made many friends there and the job afforded him lots of opportunities for traveling in the States and abroad.

Lonnie was a devoted husband to the love of his life Linda of thirty-one years. Lonnie and Linda enjoyed many adventures throughout their time together including car cruises across the country and designing beautiful homes together. They were inseparable and truly enjoyed each other's company. They eventually landed in Foley, Alabama where they enjoyed the beautiful weather and coastline.

Lonnie was a loving father and loved visiting with his daughter, his niece

Brandee and grandchildren. He was always available to give a pep talk or just listen when you needed an ear. You could always count on him for sound advice and the best support.

Lonnie's memory will forever live on in the hearts of those that knew him. His legacy of love will continue on. May he rest in eternal peace.
