“ Mom, It has been just over two years since you passed over. I miss you and often wish I could call you and talk. Honestly, sometimes I wish I could communicate with you minus the phone (you know what I mean). I'm sorry I didn't tell you how much I loved you and that as I got older (50) I realized just what a saint you were.

“ Well Mom you have been in heaven for over a year and I still miss you so very much. I have peace knowing you are with Jesus, and your loved ones and I know you have Miles with you too. It still doesn't seem real to me. Dad is doing as well as he can and Nathan and Carol take good care of him. Wil and I will spend Thanksgiving with him this Nov. I wish I had taken more time to let you know how much I love you. Jackie

“ Its been nearly 5 months now and I think of you daily. I miss not being able to call and share my day with you and share your day too. It still doesn't seem real to me. Missing you, Jackie

“ It's been nearly 3 months since you passed, Mom and I still think about calling you to talk. I dreaded Mother's Day, but I felt so thankful you are without pain and celebrating with the Lord and loved ones. I miss you. I love you, Jackie

“ Mom, can you see me down here? I'm still struggling with the fact that you're not here anymore. I'm so thankful I was able to tell you that I love you. Don't worry about dad, we are looking after him. Deb's doing such a great job taking care of him! I think of you each day.

“ Hi Mom, I miss you so much and cannot believe you are gone. I am so thankful you are with your parents, siblings, saints from the Bible and Jesus. I think of calling you on the phone only to realize I no longer can. I treasure the talks we had over the years and know you loved me as I loved you. I believe you watch me from heaven and are so thankful you are healed and happy beyond my comprehension. I am so thankful I was there with you are God took you home to be with him. All of us are taking care of Dad as best we can. Much love, Jackie

“ I miss you so much, Mom. I think of you every day and wake up during the night thinking about you. It comforts me to know you are with our Lord and are healed and visiting with your parents, siblings, saints from the Old Testament, and of course, with Jesus. I treasure out conversations thru the years and I know you loved me. All of us are taking care of Dad the best way we can. I don't know why He took you but I trust in His plan. All my love, Jackie

“ Popo's legacy was her devotion to the Lord; it can be seen in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Her commitment to God is felt by every individual who knows her descendants; What a wonderful thing!

May your crown in heaven be mightily celebrated, dear Popo.

- Sterling, your grandson, faithful unto the Lord.

“ I sat down the other day to call you, Mom. I wanted to share about mine and Bill's trip to the Dominican Republic. Then I remembered that I could no longer call you!

I want you to know Elizabeth took your clock home. David set it up and it has been working beautifully.

I miss you, but am happy you are no longer in pain, but are free.

“ I miss you so much, Mom. I think you are in heaven spending time with family and friends who got there ahead of you.

I wish you were here - but I find much comfort in knowing that you are with Jesus. Tell everyone I said "hi".

“ I will never forget the way my Dad's face lit up when my Aunt Loretta walked into his home in Bremerton. Such love they had for each other. I am sure there was great joy when they met again in heaven.
