“ The Gill family has always been caring, kind, selfless with a great love for Christ. They always have smiles on their faces and a kind word for you. She will be sadly missed by all.

*"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal."

“ While I never met Maw Maw, I regularly saw the impact she had on those she loved. The Gill family is caring, kind, selfless, and always stand strong in their love for each other. They have hearts to bless all with Christ's message. Maw Maw's goodness lives on each of them. Praying for your comfort and peace in these days of sorrow.
