“ I sure am gonna miss my grandpa bud he and the good lord saved my life at the solid rock church when I was just a preteen! When I would feel outta sorts I would want to go see him and my granny cause I knew they would shine the light in my life I needed! He and my uncle Bryan were wading in the water fishing I think at St George Island I was watching them and wanted to know about this salt water fishing so I got up went over to them and he taught me to salt water fish! I love you and until we meet again Sharontis, Duckie 🥹

“ Such an amazing man!! ❤️❤️ The love and pride he showed for his family will always be remembered. When he spoke of his grandkids, you would think they hung the moon. Because to him they did..... Thank you Bud for your guidance in life, for introducing me to God and the Bible, for the way you loved me and my boys, for alllllllll the sugar and pancakes you fed those grandsons, for your corny jokes and remarks, but most of all, for just being a wonderful part of my life. We love you always.

“Bud loved God and anyone that knew him knew that. He like playing with the family kids and joking around with everyone bringing laughter, he was an easy going person who loved everyone he would do anything he could for you, give you the shirt off his back literally. Bud never met a stranger he treated anyone he met like a friend so everywhere he went he was known and loved by so many people. Very kind hearted. We will all miss him dearly and hold him in our hearts till we meet again.
