“ Brent, Brad and family, Larry and I are at a loss for words in the loss of Martha, our precious friend and Yōur devoted mom.

15 years ago the day after Christmas, I was in Dillard's shopping, someone tapped me on the shoulder and said "who does your hair", turned around and it was your mom. We chatted non stop, and found out we lived close by. From that day on, we were buddies 😊 But, I was just one of many friends Martha had. What an honor to be called her friend!!! I don't know how on earth, after taking care of her family as she did, she made time for all of us, and made us feel soo special!! But, she did it!!

Her zest for life and her relationship with God was contagious. She was always uplifting in everything she said, good things to say about everyone. Oh my goodness, how she loved the grandchildren, Christian, Ava and Carsten. So thankful I could be with her at Christian's graduation. That was one of her main goals after her diagnosis. She was unbelievably proud of him!! She was called "Mimi", and I loved that name for a grandmother, so I became a "Mimi" too.

I will always think of her when I pass a "Paris" store, bake her chocolate pie, and watch Alabama Football. We could get tickled over something silly and laugh till we hurt. I will miss that soo much. When we met, she had dark hair and mine was blonde. If I ever did or said something crazy, she would always say "that's the blonde" talking. Then she gradually became blonde, so I always told her how "smart" she really was now 😊 I could go on and on, as anyone who met her and knew her, could. Martha would never have been ready to leave this earthly home, because she still had soo much work she wanted to do, but Our Heavenly Father had plans for her in her Heavenly Home.

I can only pray that I can live the rest of my God given life in the way she did, she set the example, God first, Family and friends. What a beautiful life, memories we all will hold dearly, and a beautiful person inside and out!!!! Martha, I will love you and miss you till I see you again!!

Brad and Brent, I am so sorry I won't be there for the service due to Larry's surgery, but you know you have my love and support. I will be praying and thinking of you all. You know, we just loved your mom, take care, love, Larry and Linda

“ So many sweet memories some hilarious. She was a true friend, loyal, honest, fun loving, beautiful, very trusting,. And if you were blessed to be her friend, she was committed to the friendship. One time our family was having dinner at my sons home, and she showed up with one of those delicious chocolate pies still warm from the oven. I will miss her ready smile and beautiful face but I do rejoice that she is no longer in any pain and she is in the most wonderful beautiful place possible. I wish , Martha you could call me and describe what all you see there because no one could quite describe things in intricate detail like you. Love you my friend and I will see you later

“ Brad, Diane, Christian, Brent and family,

I am so sorry for the sorrow and loss you are feeling with Martha being called home. She touched so many people in positive ways and made ea difference in lives as she lived testimony.

So many good memories of how she cared for you as young boys. Her devotion and love was unconditional. I loved seeing her with the two of you in tow as she attended church, school activities and volunteering in your classrooms.

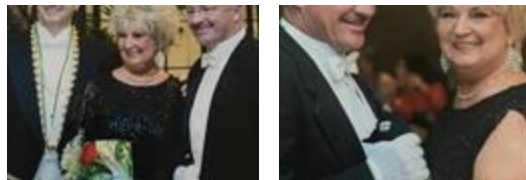

Funny story about your mom. We took you boys and Kim bowling one night and stayed out a little late for her. She said no one would ever believe she was up that late at night, but it was so much fun. Well after you were grown, she found lost rolls of camera film that she had taken when you were little. It was like she was re-living the event where she had taken the pictures as she showed them off.

What a beautiful lady. I love you all. Pam

“ What a beautiful lady inside and out! I have always admired Ms Martha from her spunky personality to her love of her children. She has always been the lady that has put others first and had the determination to do anything she has set her mind to. She has led by example and loved those around her completely. I am truly blessed to have known you! Much love and look forward to seeing you again. God bless your family for the loss

“ Martha was a great mom and grandma but what always impressed me was what a great mother in law she was. She was good to Renee and that meant a lot to me. Praying heartfelt prayers for the family in this most difficult time.

“ I worked with Martha at L. E. Willson Elementary in Sheffield for several years. We became so much more than co-workers. We would go to luka and play bingo, go shopping, and met for lunch during summer break. She was one of the most classy, trustworthy, caring people I've ever known. My heart is broken over this news but I know she is safe in the arms of her Savior and suffering no more. I love you Martha. Thank you for the wonderful memories!

Yes, classy is a good word to describe Martha. She was beautiful inside and out. I will cherish the memories of this wonderful lady who I had the privilege of knowing since 7th grade. Martha always had a smile and a positive outlook on life. Her influence is going to be missed here on earth, but I know she's dancing on those streets of gold and rejoicing with all those who've gone before. What a wonderful addition to Heaven she is.

“ We have spent many hours eating out through the years with Martha since we knew her when she lived in MuscLe Shoals. This went on for several years. Like a lot of friends with family and grandchildren after several years we did not see each other as much. I always enjoyed seeing her in the living Christmas Tree. She sung like an angel. John and I liked to play dominoes with Martha and Larry. I was shocked when I heard she had cancer and prayed for her. I know she is much better off now but you will miss her. She loved her sons and daughter in laws and grandbabies! Love John and Dorothy Gargis

“ It is hard to believe that Martha is no longer here with us. She has always been so vibrant and full of life. She loved BIG and she enjoyed life. Martha could make lemonade from the most sour of lemons - she did not let the circumstances of life get her down. She wanted everyone else to enjoy life, too. She was such an encouragement. I remember one time in Sunday School when she was sharing a lesson about living REAL, being transparent. She jumped up and pulled her skirt up to show a huge hole in her hose just above her knee. Then she shared about how we all try to present a 'put-together' look to the world, when, behind those wide smiles, we are hiding some ugly messes. Martha was real. She did not complain but she did let you see into her life - warts and all. She was compassionate and caring. She had a true servant's heart. I'm gonna miss my sweet friend until we meet again.
