Living next door to our family in times Beach we got to know Mary and her family well. Her daughter Kathy a very beautiful girl was in my grade 4 grade class in 1974. Ronnie her brother was a character like no other. Had a lot of crazy encounters as he will remember. But was a great kid then. As he'll remember the girl friend I had in 79 he was in love with. LOL. He always tried to get a kiss from her laughingly so. Mike was just a kid at when they moved in so I got to see him grow a bit before the flood happen. Both parents were great people who thought a lot of. Mary was a very kind and honest neighbor who I really liked both she and her husband. Ronnie Kathy told me at a times Beach reunion a few years back lived in eureka mo. But have see or talked to him since 82. Just so sorry to here about Mary . Such a wonderful lady and family that was very well loved from our neighborhood growing up.
