“ I remember alot of things about you when you came to our house. You boys were always getting into something or hurt.. boys will be boys definitely fit. One particular moment sticks out when u all was messing around eating steak dinner and I said stop before you choke. U said.. im a man men don't choke lol and you choked I had to perform the heimlich on you and it worked u said to me thank you I just save ur life and that you saw your life flaws before your eyes you were ok so it was ok to laugh your facial expressions were so funny all the time. Last time we talked in January u were still bring that up. You were my step son but I loved you like my own son. Rest Easy son. God has you now.
