“ My dear brother, Matthew,
It is very difficult to believe that you're actually no longer with us on Earth. I have very fond memories of our childhood when we went on family camping trips and traveled across country when Dad was still in the Coast Guard. We had fun fishing and horsing around during our childhood and early teen years. Later in life, we had fun together having adult beverages and telling tall tales. We also enjoyed watching Bama football games on those Fall Saturdays. We had some good times with our friends in the neighborhood. Although we didn't see eye to eye on everything, we always seemed to come to some sort of compromise at the end of the day. I know that you were in a lot of pain in the last few months of your life. I also know that you are now resting in peace in Heaven. You were a good brother to me, Matt. Your family loves and misses you very much. You'll always be in our hearts and on our minds. We look forward to a Heavenly reunion with you and all of our relatives and friends one day. Rest In Peace, Matthew. Your loving brother, Tim

“ It doesn't even seem real yet that Matthew is no longer with us. I have very fond memories of my brother-in-law. He was quite the character, always joking around and telling crazy tales, but he also had a very kind heart. In the 32 years that I have known Matthew, he never spoke an unkind word to me. He loved to help people whenever they needed it. All you had to do was ask, and he would do whatever he could to help. Matthew, I will miss your crazy stories and your kind heart very much. Rest in peace, my dear brother-in-law.
