“ Im going to miss my sweet friend who was the only person it seems sometimes that understood what being an Autism mom meant and what it felt like to us. I'm so thankful that God placed you into my path of life through your brother and my life was a lot brighter because you were in it. I'm gonna miss you. Praying for your family each and every day!!

HE

“ I love you Melissa! I will miss you till we meet again. You were so special! I hope you know how much you are loved. You are one of the strongest people I know along with your grandparents. I know when you got to heaven your grandparents wrapped their arms around you. I know you suffered for a very long time, but I hope all the pain is gone now. I know you are an angel in heaven! I know you are with all of our family in heaven. I hope you are at peace. I love and miss you more than you will ever know!
