“ This man had the best laugh, he was a killer cook and he opened his home to two crazy women so that they could visit his wife every couple years. I've got a bright red rock, with an A on it, that this man snuck into my luggage because I made the absolute error of saying I was a Notre Dame fan...

The list of memories is long. The pain has ended and the next part has begun. He was loved...and can anyone really ask for a better eulogy than that? May his memory be a blessing to all who knew him.

“ My baby brother! He never met a person who wasn't his friend after 5 minutes of conversation. He is with the rest of our family now - mom, dad, and especially our brother Kirk who died when Mike was 9 years old. I know Mike missed him very much. I was so blessed to lead Mike to the Lord Jesus and I know he is praising his Lord even now. He will be greatly missed, but we will all be together soon.
