“ Uncle Bobby always had a smile on his face. My favorite memory of him was when we were on the river and I told him about the fizzing from the barges engine. He told me it taste like soda. Mrs. Ashley's face was priceless. I'll miss you old man.

“ I only met Bobby a couple of times but he was always so nice and friendly. I asked him a ton of fishing questions and he answered everyone with a smile. I wish I had gotten the chance to get to know him better. Rest in peace ❤️

“ You were my first born! You were born on a Thursday, April 13, 1972 & passed on a Thursday, Dec. 4, 2025. I'm at a total loss for words! I Love you Bobby Harris & will until the day I die. I was suppose to go before you, not bury you. It's ssooo hard to make these arrangements for you! I'll always miss you calling just to say "I love you Mom"! Tell Grandma & Grandpa, John & Sue & Harris hello for me! Your 3 Aunts are there! Ya'll can have a heavenly family reunion! Rejoice! No more pain.....for you! I Love you, Mom
