“ Mike was a student of mine at Homer Community Schools, and became a dear friend. Mike was a gentle human being, funny, polite, kind, and such a joy to be around. My love and prayers go out to Marilyn and the rest of the family. May God hold you all in the palm of His hand during this time and beyond. R.I.P. Mike....we will all meet again one day. You are now a Guardian Angel.

“ He watched from their patio while I power-washed the west wall of our house. I asked Mike how it looked. He said "How does it look to you?" I answered that it looked pretty good. Mike said: "That's what matters."
