

Mildred Lovelace

February 27, 2024

Mildred Lee Lovelace, 80, passed away in Foley, AL, on February 27, 2024. She was born on March 7, 1943, in Success, Arkansas to Lonzo and Geneva Kinnard. She married the love of her life, Jack Lovelace, in May of 1971, who preceded her in death in 2020. Mildred was an extremely hard-working person her entire life and took pride in every labor presented, no matter the task. She shared her love of movies with anyone around her and was happy to loan something out of her impressive collection, suggest a movie, or lounge on the couch with her grandkids to watch anything they'd chosen, which was her favorite of all. Mildred is survived by her children Patricia (Bobby) Howard, Timothy (Amanda) Lovelace, David Rampage, and Debra Guide; grandchildren Rachel Shouse, Tonya Shouse, Jaclyn (Demarcus) Cranfill, Delanie (Lucas) Logan, Sandra Betz, Kristina Betz, Kelly (Ben) Mickley, Scott (Caroline) Rampage; great-grandchildren Olivia Cranfill, Neyland Cranfill, Adelyn Logan, Rheanna Gash, Akira Gash, Cayden Suttles, and Madison Suttles. In Lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Mildred's preferred charity, St. Jude's Children's Hospital at <https://www.stjude.org>
