“ Millie and I became close friends in 10th grade. My family had moved to Ambrose, Ga where my father, Gus Lanier, served as principal of the school there. We rode the school bus together to the high school in Douglas, Ga. After we moved from Ambrose, I lost touch with Millie. Years passed and one day in 2000, if I remember correctly, she got in touch with my brother, Gus Lanier, whom she found on the internet living in Jacksonville, Fl. I was so thrilled to hear from her again and have enjoyed keeping in touch with her through Facebook. My sympathy and prayers go to her family, especially her cousin, Herman Small and to Carol Richardson. What a loss her presence and dynamic personality will be to her husband, Lynn, to myself and her many, many friends. RIP, my dear friend. The world lost a bright light when you passed.

“ I did not know Miss Millie, but I'm a friend of her daughter Lenora and have heard many fun family stories. I hear she was a very determined lady of her own mind and a very talented painter. She leaves her legacy in her many paintings and in the art talent of some of her family, including grandson Ryan. We send our thoughts of strength and healing, and wishes of comfort from their many memories to Lenora and the extended Hobbs family. Our deepest sympathies, Karla and Ron Spaulding and family
