

Mrs Norma Rose Castaing

October 1, 1945 - August 4, 2016

Norma Rose Everret Castaing, simply put the most beautiful woman in my life, she was my mom, my dad, my best friend, we told each other everything. You only get that once in a lifetime it's called your Mother. Never waste a precious moment not doing the things you love to do together, say the things you want and need to say for you never know when God will call one of you home. This became very real for me yesterday my gram is gone, my mom is gone, my aunts and uncles are gone, my Opie is gone I even have a best friend gone too soon, so much loss of all the people I grew up being loved by and loving I say to you don't waste not one precious moment that could be devoted to those you love. My mom loved everyone didnt matter if it was her last dime if you needed it, it was yours, her last shirt you had none or were cold it was yours right off her back, you needed a place to stay she'd find a way to make room and to provide that for you. She gave her everything to those she knew and loved all my life. My mother was most giving person I know. She worked tirelessly to provide for us three girls alone with a Lil help from her mother our Gram and other family members but sometimes that meant 16, 18 hr days, sometimes it meant two, three jobs, she never gave up. Thanks mom it's because of all these examples I am who I am today always giving for everyone else first devoting my entire life to my family my husband children, mother, gram, siblings, nieces, nephews, grandkids, etc so thanks Mom for teaching me how to love, give, provide for and guide a family eternally grateful. Your life and purpose were a huge success never doubt you did enough gave enough, worked enough, gave up enough, sacrificed enough, or loved enough because you did my sweet Mother, my newest guardian Angel. We all will love you till the end of time. And mom "I love you the Mostest!" Norma was preceded in death by her mother, Arosalie Leonard our beloved "Gram", and is survived by daughters Lynne Gray, Michelle Arnold, Liz Webster, son-in-law Leo Arnold, grandchildren Heather Castaing, Leo Arnold II, Stephanie Brandon, Bradley Gray, Michelle Webster, Denise Webster, great grandchildren Dylan Wagoner, Rhianne Wagoner, Summer Brandon, Autumn Brandon, Josephine Dermid, Faith Gray and many cousins etc.

Family and friends all welcome to Memorial Gathering for Norma Castaing, to be held 3pm, Saturday, October 1, 2016 at Riverfront Park behind Audubon Zoo. “ My mom, what a beautiful kingly loving and giving spirit. It never mattered how little we had she never stopped working to give us more and better, and if you were in need family or friends shed make room for you in our home set a plate for you at our table or give you clothes to wear help you get what you needed for your kids the shirt off her back if she could she would and even when you thought she couldn't she'd find a way to help you. It's who she was and always will be in our hearts. I miss you so much mom I cry a lot it hurts everyday. I love you the mostest mom, love you to the moon and back again

“ Mawmaw never sugar coated anything with me she never had a story that couldn't make me laugh she was the woman who I looked up to. Never had anything bad to say besides when I snuck in her room and ate her candies lol. It's been hard for me to wrap my mind around the fact that she's gone. I never thought it would happen so soon. I wish I could go back in time just to spend more with her. ”
