

Patricia Loughrige

May 8, 2018

My beautiful Mother was born April 12, 1938. Yes, we (Claire, I, and Jasmine) just had the great pleasure of sharing her 80th birthday with her and Dad. We had a fabulous trip and made amazing memories, including, since we are Loughriges, eating good food. When it was time for us to leave, Sunday morning, April 15th, we noticed that she was sick, from which, sadly, she never recovered.

She not only was an amazing mother to Claire and me and wife to my Dad for 58 years but also a wonderful Grandmother. She and my Dad took Jasmine all over the country in the RV during their many travels including an almost three-week trip that included a trip to Disney World. Because of them, and the Navy, Jasmine has been to 46 of 50 states! What an amazing Grandmother.

Mother is survived by amazing siblings, Rose Joyner and Jim Joyner, both further away than we would like. Their brilliance, comfort, and humor are an ever-present comfort in our lives! Thank you both for everything!

There are no words to express what the loss of what that wonderful woman means to our family, but we are of course comforted by the knowledge she is surrounded by the multitude of angels, singing in the choir, that she didn't think she was suited for but I always did, and with her Mother and the others who preceded her there greeting her with open arms. We love you Mother now as we always did!

Just know Pat will be sorely missed not only by the four of you, but with many other people she came in contact with. I have many good memories I got to share with Pat. Have not seen her for decades, glad I got to know her for a short while.
