“ I have known Pat most of my life, and I’ve been around for 61 years. She, Terry, Mama and Daddy would drag all us kids to the woods or lake camping or fishing what seemed like every weekend. I know you remember, Sue Ann and Andy! Most of the time, we hated it. Especially as teenagers! Oh, what it would be like to go back to those days! Precious memories we never knew we’d hold so close. Pat was one of the strongest, most independent women I have ever known. I’ll throw stubborn in there too! She did life her way, on her terms, and I will miss her deeply. The years, miles, and life have kept us apart, but I truly love this family, and I pray they find some peace in knowing there is a joyous reunion of lifelong friendships and family going on right now, and although we’re left behind for now, Pat wouldn’t trade that. She’s at peace. I love you all and I’m here if you need me. ❤️
