“ Lived it when Aunt Bonnie, would pack us kids up and say ok guys, time for a road trip.... Heading to the river, so much excitement roared through the pounding of our flat feet on that wooden floor.. I loved coming to the river because one of the things that made me love the water was you Patrick, sweet cousin, you would be ready to take a swim to the other side of the river to John Ray's and I would be terrified of the Gator's you would say will eat the skinny ones first, because they was appetizer, so you eaten first Cory.. I miss and love you.. fly high with Jesus
