“ Hey Dad, so weird to share a memory since you are no longer here to create anymore. The best memory I can think of is when Lisa and I moved here and the very next day you had a big party and hired my husbands band, I didn't even know his name yet and I knew he was my everything. Lisa took pictures of you and I dancing to Tiny Dancer. If it hadn't been for you I would not be married to my soulmate. I know you struggled here and I know you've moved on to a better place where you will be happy and pain free and stress-free and worry-free. Love you dad. Be seeing you 😊
