

Ray Edward Weaver Sr

February 16, 1945 - November 17, 2019

Ray Edward Weaver Sr., a life-long musician and carpenter, went to play for the Lord on November 17, 2019 at the age of 74 in Bay Minette, AL. He was born February 16, 1945 in Clarke County, Alabama. He retired from Standard Furniture in 2009 but continued to sell his homemade beef jerky and biscuits. Ray could play more than 5 instruments and would put on a show for anyone who would listen. He was declared the “Music Man” at Oakwood Nursing Home where he spent his last months of life. He loved fishing, cooking, and country music. He was preceded in death by his mother, Clydis M. James, his father, Edward D. Weaver, and his siblings; Mildred, Amos, Fred, Steve, and Johnny Weaver. He is survived by his wife of over 50 years, Delouise Weaver, their children; Lucretia Lainer (Paul), Ray Weaver Jr., and Charles Weaver (Tracy), their grandchildren; Samantha Roberson, Victoria Roberson, Robert Roberson IV (Lucretia), Shoni Weaver, Heath Needham, (Ray Jr.), and Savannah Weaver (Charles) and one great-grandchild; Hunter Wyatt (Samantha). Ray Weaver will be laid to rest at his mother’s grave in Jackson, Alabama. Private services will be held at a later date. The family wishes to thank all who have supported them during this time, including the wonderful nurses and staff of Oakwood Nursing Home.

Arrangements are entrusted to Cason Funeral Service in Foley Alabama
