

Mrs Rayma Diane Sims

April 9, 1974 - September 20, 2016

Rayma Diane Sims of Foley, Alabama passed peacefully in her home Tuesday, the 20th of September 2016.

Rayma loved the beach and Alabama football. She was so passionate about animals, we often teased her about having a small petting zoo in her home. She enjoyed socializing with friends. Her personality and infectious laugh would light up the room. Rayma loved her family and friends with all her heart and you knew she loved you because she would tell you all the time. Her kind heart will truly be missed by all who knew her.

Rayma was preceded in death by her mother, Linda Lee Baker, five years to the day of her own passing. She is survived by her three children, Gregory, Brandon and Kaylee. Her brothers James, Brian and sister Lynette along with nephews Wesley and Caleb. Her father and stepmother, James and Lynne Sims as well as many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Visitation will be Friday, September 23, 2016 from 2:00 PM with service beginning at 3:00 PM.

Arrangements by Cason Funeral Service, Foley, Al.

“ Sweet sweet mommy (you absolutely hated being called mom or momma because "it made you sound old") I miss you more than anything in this world. The pain is so unbearable. At 19, I never imagined something like this. You are my bestfriend. How am I supposed to go through life without my bestfriend by my side? I need you now more than ever. I think about you every day. I always remember the sound of your voice, your usual jokes/sayings, your facial expressions, your smell, the warmth of your hugs. No matter what was going on in my life you could hug me and simply say "baby girl, it's okay I'm here" and it made it all better instantly. I wish you could do that now. Sometimes I'm angry, but never at you. I'm angry because in an instant you were taken away from me. I'm angry because you won't be at my wedding someday or at my graduation from nursing school. You won't be there for the birth of my children. Everyday I feel this void, this emptiness inside of me. My heart has shattered into a million pieces. Everyone tells me "Kaylee it gets better, it's going to be okay". But it's not. My world has been turned upside down and the pain will never go away. You always said that we had a special bond that nobody could ever break. You are completely correct. Not even death can break our bond. I will never understand why God took you from me and my brothers. Brandon has been so strong throughout everything. He is doing it not only for me, but for you! I know he is hurting really bad too, but I can tell he is only worried about me. You raised him well mom. He is such a sweet and caring brother. Thank you for everything you have done for us. Thank you for being my best friend. Thank you for being the best mother possible. Watch over us like I know you will. Comfort us. Walk us through our days. Kiss me goodnight. You will be forever missed by many. I love you more than you will ever know and more than words can express! -Love your baby girl Kaylee Michele

“ Rayma: I remember the first day we met, I remember birthdays we celebrated together, I remember ruining each others Christmas's by telling one another our gifts, I remember making one giant sugar cookie that we shared and pinky promising to always make one every year to split, I remember fighting with you, I remember playing barbies with you, I remember our cabbage patch birthday celebration, I remember missing you when I moved from horizon city, and I remember praying for you when I became an adult and thought of you often. I love you and we don't tell those that are in our lives this often enough. xoxo

“ Although we only knew each other a few short years I have so many memories of our fun times together. Beach Days, nights out at our favorite spots and of course our Bama football parties.....
Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners.... you are always in my heart
Rayma, or as we call it framily. (Friends like Family) I love you girlie

“ Rayma and I shared the same birthday and same year.

We would laugh about how we would celebrate one or the other or both together with us having a lot of mutual friends.

When my grandson passed away, Rayma hugged me very tightly and told me she was always here for me and my family. Then we cried, and splashed and played in the water that very beautiful day. She will be missed. Prayers for strength and peace through this difficult time for her family.

But most of all, her sister Lynette. I've always loved seeing those 2 laugh and cut up together.

Love and Sympathy

I was in Rayma wedding many years ago and she always could crack you up without even trying. Many years have passed since I have seen Rayma or spoke to her but a week before her passing I sent her a message and told her how beautiful Kaylee was and how time goes by so fast. And asked her to tell kaylee hello and to follow her dreams and told her I doubt very seriously if kaylee would remember me, she responded back and said good to hear from u out and OF COURSE SHE WOULD REMEMBER YOU! She had a way of making the room light up without ever saying a word heaven gained an angel!

“ My sweet baby sister how will I go on living without you? You have been my best friend since the day you were born. I will miss you every day of my life for the rest of my life. I promise to look after your babies and hug and kiss them every chance I get. I will always remind them how much their mama loved them. You were loved by so many. Please kiss our mom for me and I will see you two ladies again soon. Muah

Lynette,

I am so sorry for your loss. I pray that you find comfort in this time of need and realize god's promise of how he will defeat our enemy death by taking it away from all the earth. To quote that scripture: "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah himself has spoken it." (Isaiah 25:8, NWT)
