“ To my brother, my Fathead.. I had some of the best times of my life living with you. From teaching Sam how to swim by throwing him in the deep end of the pool, to getting this little runt of the litter that grew in to one of the best dogs I know, your Izzabelle. (Roll Tide Roll) Thank you, Rick, for introducing me to so many wonderful people that I am blessed to call my friends now. I will always be grateful of the times we shared together. I love you my brother! Say hello to Heaven for me.

“ He watched me laugh. He watched me cry. But he was my friend & loved me no matter which I did. I've seen him laugh & I've seen him cry. Now he flies with the Angels.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all the family and friends. Rick was a great friend, always seeing the best in everyone. Always there for so many in good and bad times. He was there for me so many times, listening to me and never judged me. This was just Rick he always stood by his friends. If you were lucky to become his friend you were his friend for life. I'm going to miss that smile and those great big wonderful bear hugs. Love you Rick. I know you are fishing in the best fishing place now. Roll Tide sweetie.
