

Robert "Bob" Howald

July 19, 2024

Robert "Bob" Howald, 75, passed away on July 19, 2024, in Lillian, Alabama. Born on September 2, 1948, in Fort Jackson, South Carolina, Bob's journey through life was marked by dedication to service, both in the military and in his civilian career.

Bob proudly served in the United States Navy as an ordnance man aboard the USS America. His service during the Vietnam War was a testament to his bravery and commitment to his country. Following his military service, Bob transitioned to a career in civil service, where he worked as an aircraft electrician specializing in Chinook Helicopters at Naval Air Station Pensacola. His post-retirement years were filled with various maintenance jobs, reflecting his ever-present desire to stay active and engaged.

A true Harley enthusiast, Bob's passion for riding his motorcycle was well-known among his friends and family. He cherished the freedom of the open road and the camaraderie found within the biking community.

Bob is survived by his son, Robert; daughter, Rose; siblings, Barbara, Mary, and William; and his eight grandchildren, Bethany, Briana, Lindsey, Jasmine, Bryant, Michkaela, Izabella, and Paisley. He was preceded in death by his parents, Lilly Mae and R.L., and his sister Lynn.

Bob's life and service will be honored in a manner befitting his significant contributions and lasting legacy. His family and friends will remember him as a courageous veteran, a skilled professional, and a loving family man who brought joy and strength to all who knew him.

“ I have a storehouse of memories of my brother Bob. Growing up together we were often play buddies because we were close in age. I am deeply grateful for the life we shared and he will be sorely missed. Sending love and condolences to his children who will carry on in his absence. Till we meet again Bob in the presence of Jesus, Love Barbara and David Carlan
