“ I am definitely going to miss your words of wisdom down at the water! If anyone needed advice ... you were always willing to listen and help. From your funny stories to those sunglasses and laughs! Still remember how Logan made you full belly laugh when he was little and up on the dock doing his version of “twerking”. Thank you for being there for him when he was little and needed all hands on deck to keep him straight ! 🤔
Don't throw any more eggs on the floor ! 🤔. Momma couldn't believe that story!!
You are missed ! You are joining a good group of the fellas from the table now!! Just like old times !
