

Ronald J Higginbotham

November 15, 1965 - October 30, 2018

Ronald Jeffery Higginbotham, age 53, passed away on Tuesday, October 30, 2018. He was born on November 15th, 1965 in Birmingham, Alabama.

A memorial service will take place at 1:00 P.M. on Friday, November 9th, 2018 at Freedom Now Christian Fellowship Church in Elberta, Alabama.

Jeff was a caring and loving son and brother. He was an avid Auburn fan as well as an Army veteran. Jeff was the type person that would give the shirt off his back and would help anyone in need, a friend or a stranger. He was a very good artist and loved to paint and draw. Jeff was the comedian of the family. He will be greatly missed by all friends and family. Until we meet again, War Eagle my brother.

Jeff is survived by his mother Billie Lightsey and husband Charlie, his father Ken Higginbotham and wife Ann, his brother Joey Higginbotham and wife Tracy and nephews Joel and Rhett Higginbotham.

“ I will never forget when you asked me to dance, July 4th, 1994 at the Pink Pony Pub ❤️ You stole my heart that day.

You taught me my love of college football and most importantly Auburn. War Damn Eagle! I remember us watching them beat Florida in the Swamp in 1994. It was a hell of a game. Patrick Nick's to Frank Sanders in the corner of end zone for a great catch! Touch Down Auburn you would yell! I still do it to this day. ❤️

Many memories you and I shared. May your soul soar high. With you up there with the big Guy, Auburn just might have a chance to beat Alabama this year.

“ Jeff U Will always be as we called each other my brother from another mother. We always celebrated our birthday's together being only one day apart. U will forever hold a special place in my heart. Rest in peace my brother in heaven. See U again one day. I love you and miss you so much. U always had a way of bringing sunshine to a cloudy day with your since of humor.
