“ I will never forget being in 6th grade and taking a deep sea fishing trip with Papaw and Uncle Ronnie. I hooked into a Grouper that weighed almost as much as I did - and when the rod dipped, it almost lifted me up and over the rail. Ronnie immediately put his hands on my shoulders to keep me from taking a swim in the Gulf. When we finally got the monster Grouper on board we were all smiles - those efforts resulted in the second biggest fish of the day. Phyllis you remain in our thoughts and prayers and we are forever grateful that you were always unconditionally there for Uncle Ronnie.

*Deepest Condolences,
