

Ronald Taylor

May 16, 2026

Ronald Taylor passed away peacefully on May 16th, 2026. Most knew Ronald as “Ronnie” “ Ron” or “Sgt. Taylor.” His nieces and nephews called him “uncle”. He was born in Long Beach, California on July 10th of 1961 to Kenneth and Dorothy Taylor. He is survived by his son, David Taylor; daughter, Hayley Taylor; mother of his children, Theresa Taylor; his twin sister, Debra Allen and his sister Barbara Henry. He was preceded by his parents Kenneth and Dorothy Taylor; and siblings Wayne Taylor, Dianna Taylor, and Janet Price.

Ronnie’s father, Kenneth, served in the Army and Navy for over 30 years. Ronnie also had a passion for serving his country. He completed multiple combat tours in Iraq and Afghanistan throughout his distinguished military career. Ronnie always had a heart for serving his country. He was proud to be a soldier and had a deep commitment to serving others. Ronnie was a patriot, soldier, and American hero. He believed in the lyrics Billy Ray Cyrus sang, “All gave some, and some gave all.” He would want all of us to “drive on” and remain “Army Strong.” You can rest easy now, Sgt. Taylor. Your mission is complete. God bless. We salute you and your service.

Ronnie will receive military funeral honors and a burial of his ashes at a later date. Details will be provided for family and friends when this service is scheduled.

Arrangements are entrusted to Cason Funeral Service in Foley Al

“ *RIP UNCLE,
Thank you for all the memories and lots of fun times we have had over the years. Glad you got to see some retirement, much deserved. Thank you for your military service... We miss you... And of course, I will get fire going... Fill my drinking horn and drink with you, one last time.
Love and honor forever.*
