

Roy A Zamecnik

August 30, 2023

Beloved friend and family member, Roy A. Zamecnik, leaves this current life; he returns home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ after a long battle with cancer. Roy was born in Johnson City, NY to Anthony and Libby Zamecnik on June 24th, 1943. In 1964, he met the love of his life, Linda Loomis, in LA, California. Together they raised 4 children in Beloit, Wisconsin: Mark (Sandy), Michael (Jennifer), Marshall (Alexandria), and Mia (Dan) Laursen. They also had 13 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. When Roy turned 17 in 1960, he joined the army and finished high school while stationed in Fort Belvoir, Virginia. During his time in the army he served as a cook, water safety instructor, lifeguard, and worked in transportation. After 6 years of service, he was honorably discharged in 1966. Following his discharge, he worked for UPS until he retired in the year 2000 after 30 years of service. He served as a cub scout master at Merrill School, past commodore for Star Zenith Boat

Club, and Elder at Forest City Fellowship. Later, while living in Alabama, he supported and helped start ministries to the less fortunate. He was also a member of the American Legion post

44. Roy was a passionate Wisconsin Badger and New York Yankee fan. He was preceded in death by his parents, brothers Tom and Edward, his in-laws Carl and Marion, brother-in-law Gary Loomis, and grandchildren Madison and Jordan Zamecnik.

We love you a bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck.

He will be laid to rest at Alabama State Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Spanish Fort, AL.

Memorial service to follow at a later date.
