“ Grief can be consuming in the beginning. It does get easier with lots of time and prayer. But know this- there is a reason YOU are still alive. God is not finished with you yet or He would have taken you home too. Bad things happen because we are IN the world, even though we are not OF the world as Believers. Life WILL keep going and it will drag you with it whether you want it to or not. You have to make a decision to allow God to help you work through your grief and show you how to pick up the pieces of your life and go on.

" Now this is the confidence we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petition that we have asked Him" 1 John 4:17

If you have not accepted Jesus Christ as your Savior, let me encourage you to search your heart and make that choice. I don't know how anyone can go through such heartache and retain sanity without the peace and love of God carrying them through.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted"
Matthew 5:4

“ What is a Mother?

*A Mother has so many things to do,
From washing, ironing, cleaning to tying a shoe.
She scrubs, she mends, she cooks and sews,
She bathes the children and washes their clothes.
When they forget to wash their faces clean,
And their clothes are the muddiest you've ever seen,
Who repairs the clothes and scrubs them like new?
Of course, that is what a Mother will do.
Who becomes the doctor or the nurse when they are ill,
Applying a bandage or giving them a pill?
Who becomes a teacher when a child has homework?
She must never her duty shirk.
Who becomes a detective to find a toy or a book?
For missing things she must look and look?
Who becomes a listener to every heartache,
To every accomplishment that a child makes?
Who scolds their children when they are naughty,
Or remind them of God when they are to haughty?
Who tends her family with love and patience, too?
Of course that is what a Mother will do.*

I thank God that out of all the women who have ever existed, He chose my mom, Ruth Douglas to be my mother. A mother's love is the greatest power in the universe; mom was compassionate, funny, and always concerned for others.

Mom gave attention to every detail to her children; Lee, Becky, Fay and Earnest. We will cherish all the memories that she left with us. With all her heart, she loved Dad, her children, son and daughter-in-law's, grandchildren and great grandchildren. The values of family meant a lot to mom and she loved all of her family. There will not a day go by without a memory of her because mom helped to shaped us into who we have become. I will forever cherish our time spent together. Mom will be greatly missed by all those whose lives were touched and felt by her presence.

I will miss you; till we meet again mom-ma.

Fay
