“ I knew Gwen and her cat from our old cat club, CLAW. She will be missed by all of us so much. I am glad someone is taking care of her pets. She loved them so much. Rest in peace my friend, until we meet again.

“ My dear friend Gwen, you have been the bestest friend anyone could ever wish for! Your passing came as a big shock and I am totally heartbroken. We have been email friends for so many years, had so many conversations and shared so many pictures. Your kitties have been spoiled rotten, like I always told you, but you loved them with all your heart, they will surely miss their mom very much. I pray that they all get good homes. I will miss you my friend, rest in peace.
Your friend from South Africa.

“ Rich and I will always remember you. How many times we laughed together and shared stories of our animals. We were so glad that Rich saved your Siamese cat Rashima and you gratefully adopted her, said she reminded you of your male Siamese Winston. May you rest in peace, my friend.

“ Gwen you will be missed. Your passion and dedication to animal welfare was tireless and could always be counted on. You were a great friend on our Facebook cat pages. All the adventures our kitties went on together, all the different petitions we signed and tracked. All the conversations we had about everything and anything. I will miss you everyday. Good bye sweet friend and Rest in Gods sweet mercy and Peace. I am sure Bentley has told our Heavenly Father about you and rejoicing being with you, in the Presence of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We love and miss you.

“ Gwen, You will be greatly missed. It is with great sadness and total shock that I learned of your passing. You have been a wonderful friend and a kindred animal lover and advocate. We have been internet and email friends for a long time and I know you will be seeing all your fur babies again at the other side of the Rainbow Bridge.

“ I knew Gwen from the kitty groups. She was a fun person and really loved her pets. Her kitties from the groups were friends with my kitties, especially my Shamus and her Ben. The antics they all got up to in the groups was such fun. I am so very to hear she has passed. Her pets that went before her will be greeting her with love. We will miss her much.

“ I will miss you. I was not as good at keeping up with ny emails as I should have been. I remember when you bought me a plant when Sadie died. That meant so much to me. Peace and light in heaven

“ I am in complete and total shock. I had just sent her a message two days ago asking her how she was doing and never got a reply. She had sent me an email not that long ago and all seemed well.

Omg. I really loved Gwen. I pray someone will take care of her beloved and cherished cats.

Gwen and I had a lot of laughs. We also had nicknames for each other that she had started.

One day, during an email that was just pleasant chatting, she began the email by saying “HELLO YOU OLÉ DURTMOLE”! OMG. That struck me so funny, I spent the rest of the just totally breaking down in uncontrollable laughter. I would be doing something and something would happen that would remind me of that name “Durtmole” and I would double over in uncontrollable laughter again. Not to be outdone, I replied to that email with the greeting “HELLO YOURSELF YOU OLÉ SWAMPHAG”!!! After that we always referred to each other by our nicknames. I eventually shortened hers to “SWAMPY”. Even on snail mail Gwen would address the envelope to me as “DURTMOLE HENDER” and I did the same when I sent her birthday and Christmas cards. I would address the envelope to “Mrs. SWAMPHAG Noel”. We often sent each other gifts and we both always used those nicknames on the package and laugh our asses off wondering what the delivery and postal services thought.

My sweet SWAMPHAG, I will miss you forever. I'll be keeping you in my prayers every time I talk to God, which is a lot. Godspeed my dear sweet and precious friend! Spread your wings and soar with the angels! I love you dearly.

Durtmole

“ I see that what I previously wrote did not get posted. I am deeply saddened by the loss of my good friend Sarah or as I knew her, Gwen. I have known her for over 20 years and we constantly teased each other about being old and about being aliens from outer space. My late wife, Carol, and I visited with Gwen and Milt in 2004. We enjoyed meeting them and all their animals. At the time we were looking to relocate from south Florida and Gwen tried to talk us into moving to Lillian.

I am sure that Ms Bridget, Pancho, Bentley, Chrissy, Murph, and all other of her "fur kids" who went before her have greeted her at the Rainbow Bridge and they walked in to Heaven together in joy and bliss.

I've only known Gwen online for a couple years. I was in her group deplorable cats playpen. Every day she and I and the other members would talk about our cats, our Christian faith and our conservative politics. It's so nice to have people who are on the same page with you on so many issues. I was so shocked to learn she had passed but I know I will see her in heaven. I have a lot of online friends who I have never met in person I will meet there.
