“ Been knowing Spencer since the day my dad hired him when Boh Bros was working on the Bayou DesAllamands bridge. In my almost 40 years with Both Bros worked with him, running carpenter work, on many projects, last on the new Twin Span connecting New Orleans to Slidell. He will be missed greatly but kept in our minds.

“ Thinking of everyone in the Candies family. Also thinking of fellow classmates of HHS. Spencer seemed a “gentle soul” if I remember correctly, albeit a good touch of mischief, as well. He was sooo cute then and I’m sure handsome in his later years. I so hope he was happy and fulfilled . . . I liked him. May he rest now, wherever it is we go. Love to you, Mynette . . . Love to all who loved Spencer. Sincerely, Tanya Becnel
