“ Stephanie lived with me in my apartment in bay minters for almost a year. She always came when I called her. She and I will always be close. My heart aches so much right now. Her spirit was so intense in the flesh so I know it will be intense in her after eternal life. My love to her sister and family. I'm so sorry for your loss

“ *I watched you grow up and become a beautiful woman. You were so pretty and bubbly. When you got mad, you were a force to be reconned with. We sit now and remember you and laugh about the good times. We cry because we miss you but your pain is gone.
You can run free in heaven. I love you Steph. I will see you again one day!*
