“ Steve and I were childhood friends, we had great times together, I remember camping in the old white station wagon at lake Mitchell and later helping build the cabin there, many hours of playing football on the lawn of the old Blue and Gray Motel. It's been 45 years since and we never crossed paths again. This is a said day for me as I was searching the internet to locate him in hopes to reunite, only to find this news. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ Just seems unbelievable that he is gone. I first met Steve in 1982, and in the years since, he taught me through word and deed what real friendship was all about. Man we had some adventures. Our main activities concerned catching violators, but we still seemed able to fit in time for beer drinkin, poker playin, many rounds of golf at Linden CC, and other things that we probably woulda got fired for, but all of it as jam packed with fun as we could make it. I've missed him since those high life days, but have not nor ever will forget him. My deepest condolences to Jesse and the Pinson Family.

So sorry. I also first met Steve in 1982 when he came to Marengo Co. we had great times chasing night hunters and other bad people. Those were the good ole days. Praying for his family.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

Goodness....I have so many memories of Steve. From the knockdown drag out games of Trivia Pursuit with Steve and his former fellow warden Rick Vines, to him, Scott and I racing the Water Patrol boat in a bass boat. I can remember one time it was September and it was either the opening weekend of dove season or the next and Alabama was playing a big game on TV and he pulled that old green LTD into our backyard and we covered it with the standard issue military surplus khaki green parachute and then watched the game. Can't remember who won but will always remember that. Y'all don't take this as he was ever not a great warden, his reputation here in Marengo Co. was "don't do wrong or you will get caught." One of the fondness memories I have is of the night before my wedding. Steve and great friend his and mine, Scott, took me out for a bachelor night on the town. That story which is best left untold will always be forever with me.

Over the last several years, Debi and I didn't get to see Steve that often but we will forever remember and miss him.
