

Steward D Bates Jr

August 20, 1942 - January 8, 2020

Steward D. Bates, Jr. Born to Doris Jones Bates and Steward D. Bates, Sr. on August 20, 1942 in Birmingham, AL.

He died at his residency in Bay Minette, AL. He was a retired city employee over parks and recreation in the city of Irondale, AL. He was married to Joyce Thompson Bates for many years. He is survived by two children: Rick and Donna Bates in Perdido, AL and Tracie and Mike Bracken of Bay Minette, AL. He had 9 grandchildren and one great grandchild, as well as his only brother Wayne Alan W. Bates, of Trussville, AL. He loved life and being on the water and watching Alabama football. He was an avid football fan whether it was college or pro.

He was preceded in death by his children's mother/best friend Joyce Bates, his mother Dorris Rollins, his step father Albert Rollins, his brothers Lucky and Rodger Rollins.

Most importantly he gave his life to God in the end.

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Shelby Houk - January 10, 2020 at 03:13 AM