

Sue Martin Buysse

February 11, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Mary Sue Martin Buysse, who passed away on February 11, 2025 in Foley, Alabama. Sue was born in Birmingham, Alabama, and graduated from West End High School. For many years, Sue worked as a secretary at Canterbury Methodist Church in Mountain Brook, Alabama, where she became a beloved figure in the church community. After marrying her husband, Charles J. Buysse Jr., she moved to Foley, Alabama, where she spent the remainder of her life.

Sue dedicated 20 years of her life as an Administrative Assistant at Mandoki Hospitality, where she worked at The Gulf Shores Plantation in Gulf Shores, AL. Her dedication and organizational skills made her a valued member of the team, and she formed lasting relationships with her colleagues and guests.

Sue was preceded in death by her husband, Charles J. Buysse Jr., and her granddaughter, Samantha Buysse. She was also preceded in death by her father, James Floyd Martin, her mother, Annie Mae McMenum Martin, and her sister, Jerry Ann.

Sue is survived by her three stepchildren: Anna Marie Buysse McElroy, her husband Glen McElroy, and their children Amanda and Christian; Kathleen Buysse Barrow and her husband Ronnie Barrow, along with their daughters

Savannah and Sydney; and Charlie Buysse, along with his children Brittany, Brandon, and Jax.

In accordance with Sue's wishes, there will be no funeral service. She will be laid to rest in her family plot in Birmingham, Alabama.

The family extends their gratitude to all who have offered love, prayers, and support during this difficult time.
