Theo Dwayne Williams

01/02/1952 – 05/23/2020

With much sadness, we regretfully share the passing away of our beloved husband-best friend, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, nephew, Theo Dwayne Williams.

He was born in Meridian, Mississippi to Reverend Theodore A. Williams “T.A.” and Beatrice M. Williams. Preceded in death by brother-in-law, many aunt’s, uncle’s and cousin’s. Surviving relatives are his soul mate, Rachael Anne Williams, daughter Candice Marie Smithey, granddaughter Sydney Marie Lively, brother Christopher Joseph McNamee, his wife Betty, niece Brandy, nephew Shane, sister Barbara Ann Wood, nephew Eddie Adkins, his wife Kim and great niece and nephew Mike and Rochelle, nephew Chris Adkins, his wife Susan and great nephew Chase, nephew Timothy Adkins, his wife Tina, great nieces Savana, Jazzie and Delana.

Dwayne’s sales career legacy consisted of 38 years in manufacturing building industry. His most recent accomplishment was his 16 years with Associated Materials based in Ohio. He retired on August 31, 2018 and he and his beloved wife moved to Foley, Alabama. Here they became part of the Foley Assembly of God family and dedicated their lives in giving and working for the Lord. Pastor Judd Sessions has been a source of strength in their commitment to God’s calling on Dwayne and Rachael’s walk with God. He continues to be a driving force in Rachael's continued walk with Christ, her healing and strength. The members of Foley Assembly of God have been a huge support system providing love, comfort, encouragement, and strength, especially their brother and sister in Christ Jim and Tami Lurwig.

Because of the current events in our world, we will schedule a memorial service at a later date. We appreciate your prayers.

“ Dwayne was much more to me than my sisters husband,he was my brother. A true brother. We shared some great moments together Bro and I have a very large hole in my heart now. Praise God I know that one day we will be seeing each other again on the other side and I look so forward to seeing that goofy smile and getting one of those big bear hugs that only you can give. Gods blessings and peace on you brother I will truly miss you

I lost one of my nephews, we had so much fun when he would come down to the hunting camp. We was so happy to see him when he could. It was not the same if he wasn't there. May God bless and be with his family and I know will be with you. Uncle Hershel❤️

Having just heard of Dwayne's passing I wanted to extend my deepest condolences to Rachael. We were neighbors for many years before their retirement move and the love and support Rachael and Dwayne offered me was just beautiful. Always bringing kindness and laughter to my life. Always supportive, always giving of themselves. This is just a profound loss to the world. May his soul rest in peace forever with the angels. We will miss you, Dwayne. I was blessed to have called him my friend.
